Attn: Arlo Fairbanks, President

Dear Mr. Fairbanks:

We are pleased to inform you of the action of the Governor's Historic and Cultural Sites Review Committee on January 12, 1972. This Committee recommended that the John Fairbanks Home in Payson be listed on the Utah State Register of Historic Sites.

We will be presenting you an official Certificate of Listing on the State Register and hope that a marker can be placed in the proximity of the property to properly identify it.

We are enclosing a copy of the Governor's Proclamation establishing the State Register. We are happy that this recognition has come to this historic site, and we are anxious that its historical integrity be preserved.

If you have any questions or recommendations, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely yours,
